

Marker area is proportional to the number of candidate files in the bin; dashed line is perfect calibration.